

Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS)

A Project of the Pennsylvania Protection & Advocacy, Inc.

Assisting Social Security Beneficiaries with return-to-work issues and employment barriers

You are eligible for PABSS services if:

You are a Pennsylvanian with a disability who receives Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits, and

1. You need information about how working or increasing your work-related earnings will affect your benefits, or
2. You are having trouble getting the vocational rehabilitation or other employment-related services and supports you need in order to work including concerns you may have with your employer about reasonable accommodations, or
3. You are experiencing a barrier to employment. Barriers to employment may also include accommodation at the workplace, need for assistive, technology, transportation issues, health related issues, and discrimination.

If you are eligible for our assistance, PABSS can:

- Provide information about the programs, services and supports available to help you work
- Provide information about the numerous work incentives that may be helpful in your efforts to get meaningful work
- Refer you to professionals who can explain how working or increasing your work-related earnings will affect your benefits and help you plan for the future
- Assist you if you encounter problems in getting the services and supports you need to gain or continue work.
- Advocate on your behalf to resolve any conflicts you may have with service providers or employers as you seek to gain or continue work.
- Identify and correct systemic barriers that impede access to vocational and rehabilitation services; and barriers to employment and support services necessary to facilitate entry or reentry to the workplace

What is PABSS? Protection & Advocacy of Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS) was established under the Ticket to Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act of 1999 (Public Law 106-170). The express purposes of the Act are: to provide health care and employment preparation and placement services to individuals with disabilities; to encourage States to expand Medicaid availability to workers with disabilities; to expand Medicare availability to workers with disabilities; and to obtain necessary services and supports to obtain and retain employment and reduce dependency on cash benefits.

PABSS, which is funded by a grant from the Social Security Administration (SSA), is responsible for protecting the rights of SSDI beneficiaries and SSI recipients who wish to gain or continue work. PABSS is part of Pennsylvania Protection & Advocacy, Inc., a statewide non-profit organization that has been advocating on behalf of individuals with disabilities since 1977. P&A services are free to all eligible individuals.
